WCDC Welcomes New Board Members

As part of our continued organizational capacity and board development goals, the WCDC welcomes four new Board members in 2011.

Vernon R. Brown has over twenty years experience in the profession of architecture with projects in the Borough of Wilkinsburg such as the Save-A-Lot supermarket, Hosanna House and several residential projects being examples of his commitment to the community. He is a member of Naomi's Way, "Inc.", a non-profit organization in Wilkinsburg that operates the Wallace Avenue Soup Kitchen and member of the Dunamis Baptist Church.

James P. Butler has been involved with the WCDC for several years as interim Executive Director and consultant to TriState Capital Bank. Mr. Butler is the President of Professional Mortgage Connection, LLC & Vista Consulting Services Inc. and has more than 25 years in non-profit management and consulting.

Glenn McKenzie is a financial advisor with Morgan Stanley Smith Barney. He also received advanced training in financial services with Ayco, a subsidiary of Goldman Sachs. He holds a Carnegie Mellon University MBA and received a J.D. from the University of Pittsburgh. Glenn lives in Point Breeze with his wife and two daughters.

Cameil Williams is CEO of Williams Management Solutions LLC and specializes in program and project management, contract negotiations and diversity consulting. Ms Williams has been recognized by the New Pittsburgh Courier as a Woman of Excellence and received the US Small Business Administration's Minority Advocate Award.

The WCDC Board meetings are always open to the public, and we welcome your input and participation.
